An extraordinary collection, among the most important for the various series covered. Rarely offered complete, with the fourth part being particularly rare. The Schulman firm began with Jacques (Jacob) Schulman (1849–1914), who was the primary cataloguer during his lifetime. His sons Maurits (1876–1943) and André (1877–1936) continued the firm and constituted the second generation. These earlier catalogues are truly remarkable for the wide variety of coins offered and the expertise with which the firm handled them. The descriptions are thorough and often scholarly, and the firm clearly relished offering unusual pieces, with colonial coins and obsidional pieces frequently included, along with Islamic and Asian coins and other numismatica rarely encountered in other catalogues of the period. The White King sales are among their most important. Clain-Stefanelli 3096 & 5895. Grierson 314: "Indispensable comme instrument de travail." Spring 663 & 664.

 A highly useful work on the Islamic mints, only superseded by the three-volume encyclopedia of Ömer Diler. Clain-Stefanelli 5869.* Grierson 225.

160 [Miscellaneous]. PHOTOCOPIED WORKS ON ISLAMIC COINS. Includes the following: a Velo-bound photocopy of Henri Lavoix's 1896 Catalogue des monnaies musulmanes de la Bibliothèque Nationale... Egypt et Syrie (includes those sections of the work dealing with Ayyubid coinage as well as some of the preliminary and supplementary matter); and the entirety of William H. Valentine's 1909 The Coins of the Jujids or Khans of the Golden Horde, including the map and plates. Fine. $40

Lavoix's reference remains quite useful and originals are infrequently offered. Clain-Stefanelli 5879.* Mayer 1034. The work by Valentine is extremely rare and most important. The location of the original manuscript, assuming it is extant, is unknown to us. It is not in the American Numismatic Society Library, where a number of original Valentine manuscripts reside, nor is it listed in Mayer. The two or three copies known appear to have been reproduced from the original manuscript at the same time.

161 [Miscellaneous]. BOOKS ON ISLAMIC AND ARABIC HISTORY, RELIGION, LANGUAGE, AND CULTURE. Includes the following: Clifford Edmund Bosworth's 1996 The New Islamic Dynasties: A Chronological and Genealogical Manual;

Syed Ali's 2008 Arabic for Beginners; a bilingual (Arabic and English) edition of the Qur'an with Interpretations of the Meaning of the Noble Qur'an in the English Language (Riyadh, 1996); Albert Hourani's 1991 A History of the Arab Peoples; a softcover 2000 reprint of Richard Plant's Arabic Coins and How to Read Them (with some ink notations); David Levering Lewis's 2008 God's Crucible: Islam and the Making of Europe, 570-1215; and Francis Robinson's 1996 Cambridge Illustrated History of the Islamic World. Varying formats, all but two in hardcover. Generally near fine, some with annotations. $100

Includes several noteworthy books, of which Bosworth's guide to the dynasties is perhaps the most important non-numismatic book in terms of its utility to the numismatist.
